Engr. Adeniji Raji,
Lagos,
Sir,

BUILDING OKEHO FOMWAN VOCATIONAL CENTRE

The idea to form all embracing muslim women organization was mooted by some committed women in 1985, FOMWAN was formally inaugurated in Minna, Niger state at the Islamic Education Trust Centre.

The idea is to create awareness among Muslim women in the true teachings of Islam in Quran and sunnah and to encourage woman to live in accordance with those teachings, to improve the moral, and educational development of women through capacity building, seminars, and empowerment programs, upbringing of their kids and being a dutiful wife.

The organization seeks to inculcate the virtues of Islamic defined statutes of the women in its members especially the reorientation of educated and functionally literacy.

In realization of these laudable objectives, Okeho Muslim women came together in 1987, pursuing these objectives with rigors and vigor, organizing workshops, sponsoring Muslim orphan to secondary school level, attending state and national FOMWAN activities.

In furtherance of these activities, we are working towards having a VOCATIONAL CENTRE to carter for the vulnerable among Muslim sisters. The percentage of vulnerable Muslim vulnerable is higher in our society and should be addressed.
